

2026 – 2029 SCCCA Board of Director Candidates

Candidate of Elected Director: Andrew Mar

Andrew Mar is an IP (Intellectual Property) attorney within Procopio's Intellectual Property practice. Andrew has over a decade of experience prosecuting patents with a focus on electrical and mechanical engineering, computer software, big data, and telecommunications. In addition to patent prosecution, he also has experience in providing infringement and invalidity opinions, and in prosecuting trademarks for a variety of clients. Andrew got his BS at Carnegie Mellon University and JD at Loyola Law School, Los Angeles.

Andrew is an alumnus of the Irvine Chinese school and serves as a board of director, 2023-2026. Andrew has been a strong supporter of the Chinese Cultural Center and the School. He lives in Irvine with his lovely wife and daughters.

Candidate of Elected Director: Mandy Woo

As a financial professional and educator, Mandy Woo has worked closely with individuals, families and business owners on wealth planning and tax related matters for the past 25 years. She has extended her experience and knowledge to SCORE, OC county SBA affiliated organizations through monthly workshops in the past 20 years. Mandy is a 1st generation immigrant, and she became a trustee when her daughter attended Irvine Chinese school.

Mandy deeply values the SCCCA's role in promoting Chinese culture, education and community connection across generations. She looks forward to contributing a collaborative mindset, culture appreciation and a genuine commitment to community services. Mandy will bring in strategic thinking to help SCCCA build long-term stability.
